

4-6 Grade Activity Guide

Wrap up this series about being a true friend by mingling and mingling while sharing gestures of friendship with one another!

Be the pair of friends who can show each other a gesture of friendship the fastest when the music stops!

You'll Need

-

Instructions

As the music starts, all participants stand in a circle.

When the music stops, participants must shake hands with the person next to them. If they do not, they are out.

Participants must shake hands with the person next to them as fast as they can.

When the music starts, participants must shake hands with the person next to them. If they do not, they are out.

Participants must shake hands with the person next to them as fast as they can.

When the music stops, participants must shake hands with the person next to them.

Participants must shake hands with the person next to them as fast as they can.

Participants must shake hands with the person next to them.

As the music starts, all participants stand in a circle. When the music stops, participants must shake hands with the person next to them. If they do not, they are out. Participants must shake hands with the person next to them as fast as they can. When the music starts, participants must shake hands with the person next to them. If they do not, they are out. Participants must shake hands with the person next to them as fast as they can. When the music stops, participants must shake hands with the person next to them.